Kentucky Commission on Human Rights
c/o John J. Johnson
332 West Broadway, 7th Floor
Louisville, KY 40202

Dear Friends,

Congratulations on marking 50 years of triumphs in the fight to gain equality for all. I appreciate the efforts of the commission to encourage fairness and educate the public throughout the commonwealth.

You serve as an important role-model for all. I am thankful we have an organization such as yours to help make Kentucky a leader in human and civil rights.

Again, congratulations and please accept my best wishes for today and the years to come.

Sincerely,

BRETT GUTHRIE
Member of Congress

congratulations!
